

NORTHSIDE DISCIPLINE AND CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

Ideally, students should behave and adhere to rules so academics can take precedence. Realistically, we know some students, at times, will misbehave. Discipline should be fair and consistent, yet firm. Discipline is regarded as a process and not an event. The overall goal of the Northside classroom management system is to develop an instructional structure in which students are respectful, responsible, motivated, and highly engaged in the specific task at hand. We strive to be proactive and positive in our approach to classroom management.

Discipline Management System (Tuesday Folder- Mark System)

As part of this ongoing effort to improve academic performance, as well as the quality of your child's total school experience, we are implementing a school-wide conduct accountability system. Maintaining a consistent and orderly learning environment is essential to fulfilling our commitment. Your child's conduct will be tracked daily in all of the following classes that apply to your child's schedule:

Location:

R=Reading	W= Writing	S= Science	SS= Social Studies	M=Math	A= Art	M=Music
G=Gym	AD= Afternoon Duty	D= Dyslexia Class	H= Hallway	HR= Homeroom	L= Library	ME= Math Excel
RR= Restroom	SP= Speech	E-ESL	C= Cafeteria	P= Playground	CL = Computer Lab	RE = Reading Excel

Behavior:

1. Not Following Directions	2. Excessive Talking	3. Running	4. Disrespectful	5. Bothering Others	6. Horseplay
7. Hitting	8. Inappropriate Language	9. Supplies	10. Cheating	11. Dress Code Violation	12. I Pad Violations

Example of behavior Chart:

	Week 1
1st Six Weeks	R-2 (child received a mark in reading for Excessive Talking)

0-5 marks = "E"Exemplary

6-11marks="S"Satisfactory

12-20 marks="N"Needs Improvement

Over 20 marks= "U"Unsatisfactory

A student will automatically receive a "U" in conduct if he/she/ is placed in DAEP.

Parents will receive a detailed conduct report each week to sign and return to the homeroom teacher. At the end of each six weeks, students will receive one cumulative citizenship/conduct grade on their report cards. The cumulative grade will be determined by the number of infractions students accumulated over a six weeks grading period.

To be eligible for the six week incentive students must have an "E" in conduct and no missing work.

RECORD OF WEEKLY BEHAVIOR ----Northside Intermediate

	WEEK 1	WEEK 2	WEEK 3	WEEK 4	WEEK 5	WEEK 6	WEEK 7
1 ST SIX WEEKS
2 ND SIX WEEKS
3 RD Six WEEKS
4 TH SIX WEEKS
5 TH SIX WEEKS
6 TH SIX WEEKS

The conduct grade on the report card will be determined by the number of marks your child receives during the six weeks. As the six weeks progresses, you can keep track of your child's marks. At the end of the six-weeks, all marks will be tallied and conduct grades assigned as follows:

0--5marks= "E"Exemplary

6-- 11 marks= "S"... Satisfactory

12--20 marks = "N"Needs improvement

Over 20 marks= "U"...Unsatisfactory

This chart will be sent home each Tuesday in Tuesday folders. Students must return the signed chart on the next school day. This chart will be used for the ENTIRE SCHOOL YEAR.

The following is a list of positive behavior incentives that are used to motivate students at Northside Intermediate.

1. Star student tickets are given to students by any NS employee to encourage good behavior/character ed. The student's name is announced each morning on the intercom and then their ticket is placed in a jar for a drawing.
2. Northside Champions are nominated each six weeks by NS staff. Four students are selected and their pictures are displayed on the front bulletin board. All remaining students are displayed on the wooden star plaques in the office hallway.
3. Perfect attendance is rewarded with a uniform free day each six weeks. Students with perfect attendance are recognized and rewarded at the end of the year awards ceremony.
4. Weekly classroom reward for students with no marks and no missing work. Examples: Eat with teacher, sticker, treasure box, helper for the day, homework pass (see following list for ideas)
5. Six weeks incentive if offered for those students who have 5 or fewer marks, no ISS placement and no missing work. Examples: Inflatables on playground, game day in cafeteria, popcorn, movie, snow cones and free play.
6. Roaring reader recognition for those who earn their reading points and maintain 85% comprehension. Their pictures are placed in the hallway on the roaring reader bulletin board each six weeks. Reading teachers display students' names in the hallway.
7. Positive office referrals.
8. Behavior contracts with rewards.
9. Social skill of the week.
10. Individual and group counseling support.
11. Eagle mentor program.
12. Office treasure chest.
13. Shout outs during morning announcements.
14. Attendance Incentive- one free dress pass for each 6 weeks of individual perfect attendance.
15. The end of the year awards ceremony recognizes the following categories: Perfect attendance, top roaring readers, A/B honor roll, advanced level III STAAR performance, E in conduct. Students are given certificates, banners, pennants, trophies, dog tags, and larger prizes are given out through drawings.
